

Men Making a Difference

MGMS "What's On!" for the next 2 weeks.

Just trying something different. Please print & then tick the box beside the date that you want to be at the Shed.

Mon: Feb 25

8:00 Metalwork; 8.30 Wood Turning; 9.30 Cards; ~~1.00 Glass Etching~~ ~~Check @ Office~~

Tues: Feb 26 & Mar 5

8.00 Woodwork-Own Project; 8.00 Leatherwork; 8.00 Metalwork Advanced; 8.30 Guitar Lessons; 9.00 Art/Painting; 10.30 Jam Session; 12.30 Music Tutorial; 1.00 Wood Carving; 1.00 HeartFit

Wed: Feb 27 & Mar 6 (WOC meeting)

8.00 Intermediate Woodwork; 9.00 Computer Lessons; 12.00 Wood Turning

Thu: Feb 28 & Mar 7

9.00 Scroll Saw Group; 9.00 Cartooning; 10.30 Cooking Demo - Is ON; 1.00 Indoor Bowls; 1.00 Electrics- 12 volt (Check @ Office)

Parallel lines have so much in common. It's a shame they'll never meet.

Fri: Mar 1 & Mar 8

8.00 Small Engines; 8.00 Woodwork- Introduction; 1.00 HeartFit; 1.00 Wood/Metal Design

Sat: Mar 2

Movie afternoon @ the Shed

The other day, my wife asked me to pass her lipstick but I accidentally passed her a glue stick. She still isn't talking to me.

Mon: Mar 4

Social Meeting- 10.30 for 11 start

Further interesting items in March:

Mar 12- Qld Opposition Leader's Shed visit

Mar 15 to 19- Hearing Bus visit. Hearing tests for member & wife/partner- book @ Shed Office

Mar 25 to 29- Yarraman Travel Group. Other details from the Travel Group..

What's ironic about the man who invented basketball?

The only losing basketball coach in University of Kansas history is James Naismith—the man who invented basketball in 1891. This hilarious example of irony proves that just because you thought of the idea doesn't always mean you'll be the best at executing it.